TATTLETALE

CLASS OF 1971

Dedication

Mr. Frank Scaturro

It is with great pleasure that we, the class of 1971, dedicate our yearbook to a most deserving person who has meant so much to us all. In his own special way, Mr. Scaturro has brightened many a day with his warm and assuring smile. He is more than willing to give of himself when students seek his advice. Through his genuine concern and compassion for others, he enriches the lives of all who know him. It is because of these fine qualities that we have chosen to honor Mr. Frank Scaturro, a man who is thoroughly involved in teaching and helping the youth of our community.

Foreword

This yearbook represents a kaleidoscope of events in our lives as we pause a moment to reflect on the past and think of the future. As the bits and pieces of the kaleidoscope focus into patterns and images to make interesting designs, we realize that no one is completely and merely individual . . . we need one another to complete our scene. Our lives have touched one another at A.H.S. through joy and sorrow, sports and studies, and student-teacher relationships. All of these form indelible patterns in our minds.

What is seen through the lens of the kaleidoscope is the design of our lives reflecting our character and personality. Each is susceptible to change by the slightest turn of the prism. May our future be filled with the beauty of truth, the realism of honesty, and the harmony of peace.

Now let us look into the kaleidoscope of our experiences at A.H.S. knowing that when we part at graduation and each succeeding year, this book will take on a new dimension.

In Memoriam

Mrs. Elinor Peck
Teacher of English

A woman of great spirit, with an open mind, Mrs. Peck was one of the most interested people we have ever known. From Stratford on Avon to Woodstock Nation, her zeal was always present, asking, wondering, probing, finding out what was currently interesting, comparing it, measuring it against what she knew. Mrs. Peck was continually involved, time could never pass her by. She taught, not with empty words and phrases, but with her whole life, proving that years have nothing to do with age, that a free and youthful spirit will live wherever enthusiasm and vitality exist together.

The faculty and students of
Attleboro Vocational Technical High School

Class History
Sophomore Year

CHARGE! Here we were, the largest class ever to fill the halls of A.H.S.; and boy, did we fill them! Not only with people, but also with problems. Classrooms were overcrowded, study halls were moved to the auditorium and we'll bet that everyone remembers missing at least one assembly.

But we were determined not to let obstacles block our way. Our first big step was to elect class officers and student council representatives. The campaigners emphasized "Togetherness" and we chose those who, we thought, would best lead our class and fulfill this motto. As president we elected Gary Shaw; vice president, Susan Rotenberg; treasurer, Carol Rotenberg; and secretary, Pamela Young. As our student council representatives we chose Marianna DaCosta, Timothy Gayton, David Murphy, Glenn Peach, Pauline Souza and alternate, Elise Dale to help create a bond between the students and the administration, also new to A.H.S.

Football-Turkey day, and Hilda was ours again. The game was held in Attleboro and the score was 6 to 0. Our victory queen was Sue Pedro. In Basketball excitement prevailed, for with a record of twelve to four, we qualified for Tech and played in Boston Garden.

More fun was on its way when we held our annual variety show "Tele-In," under the direction of Mr. Genest and Miss Kelsch. It was a great success!

The senior play "Our Town" directed by Mr. Thibodeau, revealed the varied talent of many of the members of our sophomore class.

Cheering try-outs were held in May. Five of our girls were chosen to cheer our boys on in our remaining years at A.H.S. — Margie Gower, Carol Rotenberg, Polly Souza, Pam Young, and alternate, Chris Cryan.

Our majorettes were also chosen in May. They were Wanda Gross, Janice Hall, Sue Southworth, and alternate, Debbie LaRosee.

With summer vacation near, we ordered class rings and looked ahead to our Junior Year.

JUNIOR YEAR

Here we were, Juniors, upperclassmen at last! With new confidence we elected our class officers: as president, Dave Murphy; vice president, Chet Salisbury; treasurer, Paula Shamey; and secretary, Pam Young. To represent us in Student Council we chose Marianna DaCosta; Elise Dale; Pam Farley (corresponding secretary); Trish Moore, Dave Murphy, Glenn Peach, Caron Robichaud, and Polly Souza.

In football our season ended in a tri-championship with Coyle and Feehan. At the Thanksgiving game played in North Attleboro, we triumphed again and enjoyed the victory dance with Sue Pedro as our queen.

In basketball even though we did not go to Tech, there was many an exciting game and our BCL record was 11-5.

The annual variety show took a new twist in "Hoyotoho Unlimited" directed by Miss Zahler and Miss Kelsch. Again the talent of our class shown brightly as juniors dominated the show.

Disqualification in one of their meets did not dim the aspirations of our brand new math team who finished first in Southeastern Massachusetts.

The League of Women Voters brought a new idea to Attleboro High. With their aid, Student Government Day resulted. Those elected had a chance to learn right hand the workings of our city.

This year the play "Seidman and Son" was directed by Mr. Genest. Again our class had a big hand in the production and how could anyone forget Sue Rotenberg as the leading lady?

Next came National Honor Society induction. Congratulations went to Sue Baker, Jeff Bowers, Ed Casey (President), Robert Coolidge, Ed Denzer, Pamela Farley, Catherine Ford (Corresponding Secretary), Pete Gibb, Robert Goyette, Guy Innocente, Mark Johnson, Leona Kelliher, Robert Kitchen, Carleton Legg, David McLaughlin, Patricia Milton, Janet Pimental, Lenny Pitts, Roberta Powers, Susan Raposa, Caron Robichaud (Treasurer), Carol Rotenberg (Recording Secretary), Susan Rotenberg (Vice President), Jo-Ann Rutana, Linda Small, Susan Southworth, George Touloumtzis, Donna Valade, Michelle Varin, Deborrah Walker, and Pamela Young.

In the spring, Cathy Palmer became a majorette; Margie Gower, head cheerleader; and Susan Southworth, head majorette.

As the year ended Ed Casey, Mark Johnson, and George Touloumtzis, were chosen to go to Boys' State and Pam Farley and Carol Rotenberg represented us at Girls' State.

With June came thoughts of vacationing and only one more year to go.

SENIOR YEAR

Every senior knows for himself what it is like to be at the top only as preparation to start at the bottom.

This year we elected a new president, Chet Salisbury, and vice president Sue Rotenberg but stayed with the same girls, Paula and Pam as treasurer and secretary.

To work with student council president Glen Peach and vice president Elise Dalse, we elected the following representatives: Tom Carroll, Marianna DaCosta, Robert Desvergnes, Laurie Devine, Pam Farley, (corresponding secretary), Richard Healy, Tim Livingston, Trish Moore (treasurer), Dave Murphy, Bonnie Shaw, Pauline Souza (recording secretary), and George Touloumtzis.

The first most memorable moment of our Senior year was the prom held November 20 at the Venus de Milo. Karen Krugar was crowned queen. Those in her court were Marie Banner, Marianna DaCosta, Margie Gower and Margie Hamilton.

With Gary Livesey and Scott Powers as co-captains, our football team finished with a record of 8-1 and they were co-champions with New Bedford. Gary was selected by his teammates as MVP for the season. Once again we rose to victory on Turkey Day. What a fitting way to celebrate the 50th anniversary of this annual game! The new scoreboard used for the first time put the score of 20 to 13 in lights for the jam-packed crowd to see. At the Victory Dance, Margie Gower reigned as queen.

Again something new was added at the annual variety show. "Broadway Revue" directed by Miss Menard was shown once for the Scholarship Foundation and once as a benefit for the March of Dimes.

Bringing back memories of the good old times (for the faculty at least!) were silent movie flicks sponsored by the Senior Class. Laurel and Hardy, W. C. Fields, and Vincent Price brought hearty laughs from all in attendance.

New to A.H.S. were a hard working ice hockey club (oh, those 6 a.m. practices!), the presence of dungarees, beards, and mustaches during the school day (thanks to the efforts of the student council) and REAL LIVE DONKEYS (during a donkey basketball game sponsored by the newly revived newspaper "Sun Up.")

Elise Dale was recipient of the D.A.R. Good Citizenship award and Robert Coolidge the Bausch and Lomb award.

Because of our deadline we are forced to omit the events yet to occur. We are eagerly looking forward to the annual play "You Can't Take it With You," National Honor Society induction, Class day, senior movie, the reception and graduation.

As a result of lack of space, we could never record all the wonderful moments we've shared during our 3 years at A.H.S., but we hope that this brief history will serve to stimulate more personal memories for each of you.
